

PRESS RELEASE

Renee D. Jennings
Chief Executive Officer
R. Media Group
Email: reneejennings@mediagroup.com
Phone: (646) 705-5712
www.mediagroup.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Plus Model Tiffany Braxton Belvin is crowned Ms. New York Plus America 2010

Tiffany Braxton Belvin will represent New York for the national title at the Miss Plus America Pageant in New Orleans, Louisiana July 2010

New York, NY, 09/01/2009: As the old saying goes, “If you can make it in New York, you can make it anywhere,” and Plus Model Tiffany Braxton Belvin proves that she can make it as she represents New York for the national title in the Miss Plus America Pageant, scheduled for July 2010 in New Orleans, Louisiana.

Taking an interest in pageantry at a very young age, the newly crowned New Yorker is extremely excited about competing and what this means for plus women everywhere. “Miss Plus America is something I wanted to do for a few years. Being Ms. New York Plus America means that I am a representation of all women regardless of size.”

The Miss Plus America Pageant has three categories of competitions where a winner will be crowned: Miss: Ages 18-29; Ms: Ages 30 & Up; and Mrs.: Ages 20 & Up. Contestants must be natural born females who are beautiful, classy, poised and elegant and at least a size 14W or higher to compete. Categories of competition will include on-stage interview, evening gown, and elegant pant wear.

For Immediate Release, September 1, 2009

more

For all press inquiries for Ms. Tiffany Braxton Belvin please contact Renee D. Jennings at reneejennings@rmediagroup.com.

About Tiffany Braxton Belvin

Tiffany Braxton Belvin, a native New Yorker, began performing in amateur fashion shows in the early 90's. In 2007, when cast for a reality show that did not meet production she was urged to consider modeling professionally. Tiffany began her professional career as one of the first signature models for the e-zine, Belle-Noir.com. She became a fit model for a denim company, and has placed as a finalist in multiple model search competitions.

Tiffany has appeared in various media outlets including, The Tyra Banks Show, ABC's Eyewitness News, NBC's Today in New York, and she appeared in the second season of Lifetime Television's How to Look Good Naked. Tiffany was crowned Miss NYC Plus Diva 2008 where she also received accolades for her award winning poem "Why Do I Love My Curves?"

Tiffany's professionalism and work ethics have parlayed her into positions as a model consultant, pageant coach, and she is the Regional Director for the Miss Black New York USA Pageant. She is also the executive producer for The Miss Black Queens NY USA Pageant. Tiffany is currently represented by DSE Model & Talent Management.

Miss Plus America

Coronet Productions, L.L.C. is entity, committed to excellence in pageantry and owned by Christian women who believe in healthy competition, however difficult, that promotes individuality, confidence and overall achievement among all contestants. Coronet Productions, L.L.C. is an organization devoted to promoting the sophisticated, ambitious, responsible and community service oriented full-figured woman of the new millennium.

Committed to the plus size woman, we believe that all women are beautiful, inside and out and deserve a chance to promote those causes closest to her heart with a title worthy of her representation. The Miss Plus America Pageant System is an organization devoted to celebrating the essence of the full-figured woman.

A woman with ambition, our Miss Plus America titleholders are women with uncompromising morals and a desire to serve her community through volunteerism. They are women who shine on stage and are the perfect representation of poise and grace.

###